

Our CPA firm has used an independent ISP for over 10 years and have been exceptionally happy with the local, personal service provided. We have not had a similar experience with the large phone companies when dealing with other issues and would be against anything that threatens the local ISP's viability.